EXPLORE THE AREA MARKED ON THE MAP TO FIND THE ANSWER TO EACH QUESTION. THEN USE YOUR ANSWERS TO SOLVE THE MYSTERY PHRASE.

- 1 Head first to the Stockton Active Hub, a combination playground and skate park. What colour is the big slide?

4

- 2 Find the Ferrying Stockton's Workers Information Board north of the Ferry Wharf exit. This sign describes how Stockton was a home base for industrial workers. What major Newcastle employer opened in 1915?

- 2 Examine the Stockton map and spot the ferry wharves marked with circles. How many wharves did there used to be?

3

- 3 Walk east along the Stockton Foreshore park and you'll spot a sign called Pirate Point. In November 1800 at Broken Bay, a gang of convicts seized a boat and sailed it to Newcastle. What was this boat called?

- 4 Find the sign "Stockton Foreshores c1880s". What item that you can find on a ship do you see stretched across this sign?

6

- 5 Look for the Burrabihngarn sign. It describes how this area is significant to local indigenous people. It also explains that the area is culturally linked to a creature. What is the creature?

5

- 6 Find the "Stockton Colliery Was Here" sign. This describes the operations of the Stockton Coal Mine which was originally in this location. What colour is used to mark the mine on the map?

7

- 7 Further along the walk, you'll spot a sign about the Stockton anti-aircraft battery. This is the site of the original battery. When Newcastle was fired upon by Japanese submarines on 8 June 1942, the Stockton AA Wave Battery guns returned fire. How many airplanes are shown heading for Newcastle on this drawing?

8

- 8 Next up is the sign "Breakwater on the Oysterbank". What was constructed between 1898 and 1912 and was a major engineering feat due to the shifting sandbank?

2

- 8 What is the name of the ship shown on this board? It was shipwrecked on Stockton Breakwater on 1 October 1904. If you walk out on the Stockton Breakwall now, you'll see the rusting hulk.
